ATTEMPTED ARMED ROBBERY 1260 WEST PRINCE ROAD

The Tucson Police Department is seeking the public's assistance in identifying an attempted armed robbery suspect. On February 20, 2013, at 9:51 a.m., officers from Operations Division West responded to a report of an attempted armed robbery at the Wells Fargo Bank located at 1260 West Prince Road. Upon arrival, officers determined that the suspect had fled the scene prior to their arrival and that no one was injured during the incident. Officers initiated a search in the surrounding area but were unable to locate the suspect.

Detectives from the Robbery Unit responded to continue the investigation. They determined that the suspect entered the bank and handed a note to the victim teller demanding money and threatening harm. The victim teller was protected by bulletproof windows and announced out loud that the bank was being robbed. The suspect then fled without any money in an unknown direction.

The suspect was described as a Caucasian male, 25 to 35 years old, 5'08" tall, 180 to 190 pounds. He was wearing a dark beanie cap, dark hooded sweatshirt bearing white lettering and logo, red t-shirt, and light colored blue jeans. Surveillance photographs are included below. Anyone with information on the identity or location of this individual is urged to call 911 or 88-CRIME.
